The Department of Modern Languages, Ohio University, Athens
Is pleased to announce the

Ursula Feer Farfel Scholarship

In Modern Languages

Incoming First-Year Undergraduate Student Fall 2018

The Farfel endowed scholarship is awarded every four years to a high school graduating senior who has been admitted to Ohio University and is majoring in French, German, Russian or Spanish. The scholarship is a gift from Dr. Gilbert Farfel and his wife Ursula Feer Farfel, a 1956 Ohio University graduate.

The Farfel scholarship

- will be awarded to an incoming, first-year undergraduate student who will major in French, German, Russian or Spanish (majors offered in the Department of Modern Languages at Ohio University)
- will be applied to instate tuition for four years, contingent upon the student maintaining a 3.0 GPA (both overall and in the language major)
- will be need based. Need will be determined by the Ohio University Office of Financial Aid, which uses the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to determine eligibility. The FAFSA document will be available on line at www.fafsa.ed.gov after January 1, 2018 and must be submitted to the O.U. Office of Financial Aid no later than April 15, 2018.
- will be awarded to a student who has been admitted to Ohio University for fall semester 2018.
