Dear Spanish student:

Sigma Delta Pi, the National Spanish Honor Society, is now accepting applications. It is not necessary to be a Spanish major. Membership is open to undergraduate and graduate students. The requirements are:

for undergraduate students:
1 - Have completed at least one of these courses:
   3348, 3349, 3460, 3550
2 - Have a 3.2 GPA in Spanish
3 - Have a 3.0 overall GPA

for graduate students
1 - completion of two graduate courses in Spanish at Ohio University
2 - Have a 3.0 GPA

Once you are accepted, you must pay a one-time membership fee of $30 and attend the Initiation Ceremony on October 8th, 2018, from 6:00-8:00 pm in Gordy 113.

Sigma Delta Pi, founded in 1919 at the University of California, Berkeley, is the only national honor society recognizing outstanding college and university students of Spanish. The Ohio University chapter, Phi Rho, was founded in 1986 and has inducted more than 450 members. Certification from the Association of College Honor Societies attests to Sigma Delta Pi’s legitimacy and renown, and more than 590 active chapters promote and reward the study of Spanish in US colleges and universities. The society is affiliated with the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese (AATSP); the North American Academy of the Spanish Language (ANLE); the Instituto Internacional Sampere in Spain and Ecuador; UNINTER of Cuernavaca, Mexico, the Academia Latinoamericana de Español in Ecuador; and the Instituto Franklin-Universidad de Alcalá de Henares in Spain. The society awards various scholarships, prizes, and grants to members each year.
